IN THE HIGH COURT FOR THE STATES OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

C.R.No.1854 of 2007

DATE OF ORDER: 5.4.2007

Manju

...Petitioner(s)

Versus

Oriental Bank of Commerce

....Respondent(s)

CORUM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M. AGGARWAL

...*.

Present: Mr. Vinod Bhardwaj, Advocate.

M.M. AGGARWAL,J

This is petition for release of the amount lying deposited with the Bank in the name of the petitioner Manju.

It comes out that vide award dated 30.1.2007, Rs.3,95,000/- was awarded as compensation. It was payable to Manju as widow, Yogesh, Kanika and Vishal minors in equal share. Share of the minors is stated to be lying deposited. Rs.30,000/- is stated to have already been released out of the compensation payable to Manju. Vide order dated 30.1.2007, MACT, Kurukshetra had, however allowed Rs.50000/- to be withdrawn by her.

Counsel for the petitioner Manju states that Manju has to look after these three children and they are to be given education and therefore whole amount lying in the name of Manju is required to be released.

Since the amount of the minors stands deposited and only 1/4th share was payable to Manju and the award was made about four years back, it is directed that all the amount to which Manju had been held entitled, if lying deposited shall be allowed to be withdrawn.

With this observation, petition stands disposed of.
